Napoleon Cantu Herrera

Associate I Mergers and Acquisitions; Private Equity and Venture Capital; Financing; Corporate Governance

Professional experience

Napoleón focuses his practice on corporate and transactional law, with particular experience in mergers and acquisitions, private equity, venture capital, capital markets, corporate governance, and estate planning.

He has participated in a broad range of domestic and cross-border transactions, advising individuals, private companies, and public companies on the structuring and execution of complex matters. His experience includes acquisitions, tender offers, divestitures, issuances and reopenings of publicly traded debt securities, strategic partnerships, corporate restructurings, financings, and estate planning transactions, among other matters.

Napoleón earned his Master of Laws (LL.M.) from the University of Pennsylvania Carey Law School and obtained a business certificate (Wharton Business and Law Certificate (WBLC)) from The Wharton School.

He has been admitted to the New York State Bar since November 2025.
