César Guevara Morales

Associate I Corporate Law; Finance; Infrastructure; Mergers and Acquisitions

Professional experience

César Guevara focuses his practice on representing lenders, investors, and borrowers in complex financing transactions, including bilateral, syndicated, and structured financings. He has advised banks, non-bank financial institutions (SOFOMs), investment funds, trustees, master servicers, and Mexican and foreign companies on bilateral, syndicated, and structured financing transactions.

His practice focuses on the structuring, negotiation, and implementation of credit agreements, administration and payment source trusts, factoring arrangements, receivables assignments, security interests, and other financing-related documents. He also participates in legal due diligence processes and transaction closings, advising clients on the transactional and regulatory aspects of financing structures.

César holds a Law Degree from Facultad Libre de Derecho de Monterrey and a Master's Degree in International Business and Financial Law from Chicago-Kent College of Law.
