

Contact

luis.garcia@vgf.law

+52 (81) 2140 6900

www.vgf.law

Profile

Luis specializes in corporate matters and mergers and acquisitions, with an emphasis on corporate governance, compliance, and anti-corruption. Luis has represented Mexican and international companies in the design and implementation of their corporate governance structures and compliance programs, and has advised business and civic organizations on legislative initiatives and best practices in corporate compliance and anti-corruption. Luis also has extensive experience in negotiating and structuring mergers and acquisitions, private equity transactions, and commercial contracts.

Education

- Master of Science in Management, Stanford Graduate School of Business
- Master of Laws, Harvard Law School
- Bachelor of Laws, University of Monterrey

Experience abroad

- Cleary, Gottlieb, Steen & Hamilton. New York office. 1993
- Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering. Washington, D.C. office 1992

Luis A. García Campuzano

Partner | Corporate Governance; Compliance; Mergers and Acquisitions

Relevant transactions

CEMEX

In the design, implementation and evolution of its corporate governance and ethics and compliance program.

FEMSA

In the evaluation, design, implementation and evolution of its ethics and compliance program.

Arca Continental

In the analysis, design, implementation and evolution of its ethics and compliance program.

A US public company, in the implementation in Mexico of its compliance program, including review of anti-corruption policies and training materials for employees and suppliers.

One of Mexico's leading business associations, in its assessment, comments and official positioning regarding the governance of Pemex and CFE, in the context of the national energy reform program.

CEMEX

In the negotiation and documentation of M&A transactions involving companies and assets in Mexico, the United States, the Philippines, Indonesia, Thailand, Costa Rica and the United Kingdom, among others.

Axtel

In its merger with Alestra.

Sandvik AB

In its acquisition of QUIMMCO's precision cutting tools business.

AC Ventures

Arca Continental's corporate venture fund , in various strategic investments.

Heineken Mexico

In its strategic acquisition of a stake in a craft brewery, as well as in its sale of an ice production and marketing subsidiary.

Contact

luis.garcia@vgf.law

+52 (81) 2140 6900

www.vgf.law

Profile

Luis specializes in corporate matters and mergers and acquisitions, with an emphasis on corporate governance, compliance, and anti-corruption. Luis has represented Mexican and international companies in the design and implementation of their corporate governance structures and compliance programs, and has advised business and civic organizations on legislative initiatives and best practices in corporate compliance and anti-corruption. Luis also has extensive experience in negotiating and structuring mergers and acquisitions, private equity transactions, and commercial contracts.

Education

- Master of Science in Management, Stanford Graduate School of Business
- Master of Laws, Harvard Law School
- Bachelor of Laws, University of Monterrey

Experience abroad

- Cleary, Gottlieb, Steen & Hamilton. New York office. 1993
- Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering. Washington, D.C. office 1992

Luis A. García Campuzano

Partner | Corporate Governance; Compliance; Mergers and Acquisitions

Relevant transactions

Contour Global Mexico

In a joint venture with a leading company in the energy sector to develop CO2 processing plants, as well as in various corporate and commercial operations.

CEMEX

In multiple financing and capital markets operations, including the negotiation and documentation of public and private transactions, in debt and equity markets; as well as compliance with requirements of securities authorities, including Mexico's National Banking and Securities Commission and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.