

Contact

rafael.quevedo@vgf.law

+52 (81) 2140 6900

www.vgf.law

Profile

Rafael Quevedo specializes in corporate law, with extensive experience in advising public and private companies on financing transactions, mergers and acquisitions (domestic and cross-border), capital markets, joint ventures, corporate governance and all types of corporate and transactional matters. Rafael also has experience in infrastructure and project financing transactions, including green energy projects, as well as in compliance with Mexican securities regulations.

Education

- Law Degree / Instituto Tecnológico de Estudios Superiores de Monterrey.
- MBA / Tecmilenio University
- Energy Law Certification / Escuela Libre de Derecho

Rafael Quevedo Muñiz

Partner I Mergers and Acquisitions; Capital Markets; Infrastructure and Energy

Relevant transactions

Cemex

In issuances of Mexican long notes (Certificados Bursátiles de Largo Plazo) for MXN $17 billion.

---

Scotiabank

In a structured real estate financing transaction with pharmacy lease revenues as its source of repayment.

---

Banorte

In a financing transaction provided to a Vertex-managed vehicle for the construction of the Península Shopping Center.

---

Altum Capital

In structured financing transactions extended to various financial institutions, leasing companies and service providers.

---

Cartolito

In Cartones Ponderosa's US$100 million investment.

---

CGOMSA

In the sale of Hospital Ginequito and Hospital Regiomontano.

---

Ambit Technology

In the sale of its business and integrated software solutions platform to Pide Directo.

---

Finsa Portfolios

In a syndicated credit facility to acquire shares held by a group of shareholders of Grupo Finsa's holding company.

---

Cemex

In the development, financing and sale of the "Tuli" and "Helios" photovoltaic projects, each with an installed capacity of 150 MW, as well as the "San Matías" wind project, with an installed capacity of 30 MW.

Contact

rafael.quevedo@vgf.law

+52 (81) 2140 6900

www.vgf.com

Profile

Rafael Quevedo specializes in corporate law, with extensive experience in advising public and private companies on financing transactions, mergers and acquisitions (domestic and cross-border), capital markets, joint ventures, corporate governance and all types of corporate and transactional matters. Rafael also has experience in infrastructure and project financing transactions, including green energy projects, as well as in compliance with Mexican securities regulations.

Education

- Law Degree / Instituto Tecnológico de Estudios Superiores de Monterrey.
- MBA / Tecmilenio University
- Energy Law Certification / Escuela Libre de Derecho

Rafael Quevedo Muñiz

Partner I Mergers and Acquisitions; Capital Markets; Infrastructure and Energy

Relevant transactions

CLC Solutions

In a private equity investment by Bocel.

---

NadBank and Multiva

In the financing for the development, construction and operation of the “Osme” medical complex in Sonora.

---

Kredi

In various revolving credit facilities secured by mortgage loans.

---

Sasil

In the acquisition of P&G brands and products, as well as the negotiation of royalty-based license agreements.